

Dip TESOL or DELTA?

Cambridge Assessment
Delta

Dip TESOL

Delta

Qualification Level

Level 7 UK OFQUAL
Equivalent to a Master's degree in depth of study
(but not length)

Assessment

4 units
You need to take and pass all 4 to get the qualification

3 modules
You can take each one separately and gain a part of the qualification

Typical Length

Usually 6-12 months.
Must pass all 4 units within 3 years of starting.

Usually taken as separate modules. Some centres offer integrated programmes to take all 3 modules concurrently over 9+ months.
Course lengths vary:
Module 1: 6 weeks- 6 months
Module 2: 6 Weeks- 9 months
Module 3: 6 weeks- 6 months

Main components

Unit 1

3 hour written exam
1 paper

Module 1

3 hour written exam
2 papers (same day with 30 min break.)

Unit 2

3 pieces of internally assessed and externally moderated coursework:

- Design an observation instrument
- Teach and reflect on a series of lessons related to an area of developmental interest
- Small scale action research or other independent research

Module 2

4 assessed lessons
with accompanying background essays ("LSAs")

- 1 Professional Development Assignment (PDA):
- Reflect and action plan at 4 distinct stages of the course
 - Research, teach and reflect on a single lesson in something that is experimental for you as a teacher

Unit 3

30 minute phonology-focussed interview with examiner

Module 3

Course design assignment or Education management assignment

Unit 4

5 assessed lessons

Cost

€2,450 + €490 Exam Fee
(Dublin TEFL fee)

Integrated course/total for all 3 modules:
c.€3400 + €420 Exam Fee

Find out more about the DublinTEFL Dip course at <https://www.dublinterfl.com/trinity-dip-tesol>

www.dublinterfl.com

